GUIDELINES FOR NEW (LCA) DEALERS

Definition of a dealer – (from ATA guidelines) – A dealer’s primary business is to sell, service, and/or promote products to consumers from no more than two physical locations.

Potential LCA Dealers must complete and return to our team an LCA Dealer Application as well as the items listed below. Submit all documentation to: sales@lastchancearchery.com

Submit the following:

- #1 A current business license and Tax ID (if applicable)
- #2 Two (recent) invoices from (archery-related) suppliers, each over $1,000
- #3 Pictures of your Pro Shop (inside and out)
- #4 Completed Dealer Application

After (ALL) items have been submitted, you’ll be contacted within 3 business days with an approval or with a request for more information.

NOTE: If you do not send all of the necessary documents, we will not be able to start the application process. Please ensure you have all of the records requested (#1-#4) attached to your email.
